

DR SULAGNA CHATTOPADHYAY (PhD, FRGS)

Founder-Editor, Geography and You

editor@geographyandyou.com; sulagna.gny@gmail.com

Sulagna Chattopadhyay has been working for nearly three decades in climate change, polar studies, disaster management, and biodiversity. She founded LIGHTS (Learning in Geography, Humanities, Technology and Science), an educational NGO, in 2003. She founded G'nY (Geography and You), an ISSN and RNI-accredited journo-mag focusing on climate change, development and the environment, completing 150 issues; and SaGAA (Science and Geopolitics of Arctic and Antarctic), a think tank on the policy and advocacy of Polar and high-mountain issues, under the banner of LIGHTS.

Dr Sulagna has been involved in various research and outreach programmes and has co-authored two books—Climate Change and The White World; Science and Geopolitics of The White World: Arctic-Antarctic-Himalaya published by Springer, along with six other books on varied topics. She has two petitions admitted in the Indian Parliament on stent pricing and PIO marriages. She has been a member of the National Biodiversity Authority, Chennai and has engaged in various conservation and climate change efforts. She was awarded the “Business Excellence and Innovative Best Practices Academia Award-2019” by the New Delhi Institute of Management (NDIM).
